

1. A display for a casket selection and/or viewing room comprising:

a wall;

a plurality of casket portions displayed on said wall, said

5 plurality of casket portions representing a plurality of casket choices from which a customer may select; and a plurality of casket information modules displayed on said wall, each of said information modules corresponding to one of said plurality of casket portions and including at least one of a photo of the casket, a portion of

10 a cap panel of the casket and a fabric swatch of the casket, said at least one of the photo, portion of the cap panel and fabric swatch being visible to the customer without opening said information module.

2. The display of claim 1 wherein said casket portion and corresponding information module are secured to a support, said support secured to said wall.

3. The display of claim 2 wherein said wall includes at least one horizontal groove therein, and said support includes a first bracket mounted thereto which is received in said groove in said wall.

4. The display of claim 3 wherein said support includes a second bracket mounted thereto and said information module includes an opening which receives said second bracket.

5. The display of claim 2 wherein said support is L-shaped having a leg portion and a foot portion, said casket portion is a casket corner having first and second side portions abutting said leg and foot portions, respectively of said support and said information module abutts said leg portion of said support.

6. The display of claim 5 wherein said support further includes a portion connecting said leg and foot portions, said casket corner supported atop said connecting portion.

7. The display of claim 1 wherein said information module includes first, second and third pockets containing a photo of the casket, a portion of a cap panel of the casket and a fabric swatch of the casket.